

ALDERMEN FILE $1,000 BOND.

To Protect City Against Loss in Suit Against Franchises.

The obstructionist aldermen, represented by La. Khan Kellor, yesterday filed a bond for $1,000 to indemnify the city against loss in case the suit brought by the aldermen to enjoin the Board of Estimate and Apportionment from acting on franchises under the new Elberhard should be unsuccessful. It is expected that the step will prevent the Board of Estimate from taking any action upon the applications and petitions for franchises filed on June 2 by the Atlantic Telephone Company, the New-York and Port Chester Railroad Company, the Southern Boulevard Railroad Company, and the Union Transfer Company, and from taking any action upon any other franchise applications or petitions which may be filed by these associations under the acts of the legislature passed last session.

Representatives of the New-York and Port Chester company said last night that they had no necessary nine votes in the legislature for granting a franchise on their road, and that as soon as the court's dispose of the aldermen's franchises will be forthcoming.

TO STUDY PARK SITUATION.

Association to Work on Whole City—Little Children Considered.

An authoritative statement regarding the plans of the Metropolitan Parks Association, recently organized, with Eugene A. Philbin, president, and Frederick S. Lamb, vice-president, was given to a Tribune reporter yesterday by A. A. Hill, the secretary.

Mr. Hill said the association had been organized to develop a systematic plan for the parks in the city of New-York, so that eventually no section would be overlooked, and to conduct a continuous agitation until the park needs were obtained.

It was proposed by Mr. Hill, to study the park situation in the whole city before making any suggestions. In Manhattan the park locations pictured would be studied to have the areas pictured where the congested health statistics would also be studied, especially regarding the deaths of little children.

ERIE BASIN SHIPBUILDERS STRIKE.

Nine Hundred Men Out in Sympathy with Apprentice Fitters.

Nine hundred men employed at the Erie Basin drydock by the John N. Robins Company and by the Robert White Shipbuilding Company, have gone on a strike because the company refused to accede to the demands of the apprentice shipfitters, who have been receiving $1.70 a day and who now demand $2.50. All the other mechanics went on strike, in sympathy with the apprentices.

When five hundred of the men struck on Saturday Superintendent Todt told them their demands would be considered. To minimize the company's position, Philadelphia for strike breakers, who were put to work yesterday after the company had refused to grant the advances asked for by the men. The strikers were told to remain at once and to strike every one of them to quit, leaving the concern at an absolute standstill.

Several large vessels are on the docks, the contractors calling for rush work on all of them.

BULLETS IN MELTING POT.

Michael Murphy, who is employed as a moulder in the brass works of Kahn Brothers, No. 239 West 18th-st., is in Bellevue Hospital, a victim of a peculiar accident. Yesterday, as he shovelled a lot of brass into a furnace to be melted, there came a tremendous popping as of a fusillade of Krak-jergenson rifles, and the air became filled with bullets and pieces of metal, and a lot of the molten metal was scattered over his head and bare arms. His injuries were more painful than serious.
